Mangalam Engineering College celebrates NCC's 75th anniversary

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @kottayam

AS the nation commemorates the 75th anniversary of the National Cadet Corps (NCC), which was established in 1948, the NCC unit at Mangalam Engineering College in Ettimamoor has organised the NCC Fest - Advaya 2K23 on its campus as part of the festivities.

According to NCC officers, the Mangalam Engineering unit consisting of 150 cadets, provided a platform for cadets from Kerala and Lakshadweep to showcase their skills in various activities. Around 2,000 NCC cadets from different educational institutions participated in this event. The fest took place at a theatre named after Captain Vikram Bhadra.

Dr Biju Varshese, the chairman of Mangalam Educational Institutions, presided over the inaugural function. Dr Rajiv V Dharaskar, the director of the Indian Institute of Information Technology Priya C Kurian, scientist at Vikram Sarabhai Space Centre, Major General J S Mangat, additional director general of NCC Kerala & Lakshadweep Directorate, and Brigadier Biju Shanitharan, the group commander, Kottayam, welcomed the gathering, and Lt. Abhijith Kumar AN, the associate NCC officer, proposed the vote of thanks. As part of the fest, exhibitions and demonstrations by the Army, Navy, Air Force, Military Engineering Department, and NATPAC, were held to provide comprehensive knowledge in the fields of defence, science, and technology.
